12. The following is an overview of the services that PwC US Tax rendered as tax compliance and tax advisory services provider to the Debtors during the Application Period:

(b) Tax Advisory Services. Hours: 163.20, Fees: $177,883.20

Thus, some services may appear under more than one project category; however, in no instance is a specific time entry recorded or charged more than once.

SUMMARY OF EXPENSES INCURRED

14. PwC US Tax does not request reimbursement of any expenses during the Application Period.⁷

ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION

15. The professional time expended by PwC US Tax, the value of said time in fees, and the value of the actual expenses incurred by the firm were actual, reasonable, and necessary. In all respects, PwC US Tax's fees and expenses meet the standards for allowance under Bankruptcy Code section 330, as well as the standards that govern the review and allowance of bankruptcy professionals' fees. See, e.g., In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctrs., Inc., 19 F.3d 833 (3d Cir. 1994).

⁷ PwC's standard practice is to treat certain expenses as having been incurred when such obligations are recorded and reflected as payable in PwC's accounting system. Accordingly, reimbursement for certain disbursements incurred during the Application Period may still be pending submission and will be requested in a future fee application.

16. Bankruptcy Code section 331 provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of Bankruptcy Code section 330 to govern the Court's award of such compensation. See 11 U.S.C. § 331. Bankruptcy Code section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under Bankruptcy Code section 327 the "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(A)-(B). Bankruptcy Code section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

17. The reasonable value of the services rendered by PwC US Tax for the Application Period as tax compliance and tax advisory services provider to the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases is $403,123.20. The hourly rates and fixed fees reflected on the exhibits hereto are PwC US Tax's customary rates and fees for work of this nature. The professional services performed by PwC US Tax were in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates and other parties in interest. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and time-sensitive nature of the problems, issues, or tasks involved. The professional services were performed with expedition and in an efficient manner.

18. In accordance with section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the fees requested are reasonable in light of factors including, among other things, (a) the complexity of these Chapter 11 Cases, (b) the time expended, (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered, (d) the value of such services, and (e) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under this title. Accordingly, allowance and payment of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein is warranted.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

19. Although PwC US Tax has made every effort to include all fees and expenses incurred during the Application Period in this Application, some fees and expenses may inadvertently be omitted from this Application, including as a result of accounting and processing delays in the Application Period. PwC US Tax reserves the right to submit further applications to the Court for allowance of such fees and expenses not included herein. Subsequent fee applications will be filed in accordance with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and the Interim Compensation Procedures Order.

CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE AND WAIVER

20. To the best of its knowledge, PwC US Tax believes that this Application, together with the exhibits attached hereto, and the description of services set forth herein of work performed are in compliance with the requirements of the PwC US Tax Retention Order. To the extent that this Application does not comply in all respects with those requirements, PwC US Tax believes that such deviations are not material and respectfully requests that such requirements be waived.

NOTICE

21. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Procedures Order, this Application will be served upon the Compensation Notice Parties (as defined in the Interim Compensation Procedures Order). Notice of hearing on this Application will be served upon all parties that have requested notice in the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In light of the nature of the relief requested, PwC US Tax submits that no other or further notice is necessary.

WHEREFORE, PwC US Tax requests the entry of an order approving interim allowance and payment, to the extent not previously paid, in the amount of $403,123.20, which is equal to the $403,123.20 of total compensation (including all holdbacks) earned by PwC US Tax during the Application Period for its services to the Debtors; and such other and further relief as may be just and proper.
